'The Creamline Run'

A day of transport nostalgia based on the 1950s National Service area.

Held at the Yorkshire Air Museum at Elvington on Sunday 1st October 2017

Features of the day Include:-

- A road run cavalcade of vintage coaches and lorries from Hemingbrough to RAF Elvington (The Yorkshire Air Museum) simulating a return to barracks, travelling through the leafy North Yorkshire back roads.
- The fantastic Yorkshire Air Museum and its collection of vintage aircraft and associated artefacts.
- Vintage cars, lorries and buses on display.
- Vintage Coach Service to the preserved Derwent Valley Light Railway at Murton (additional cost)

Visitors may attend the event by either;

- Pre booking Excursion seats on our vintage coaches - Hemingbrough/Elvington & Return (This includes Cavalcade, Entrance to YAM, Vintage Coach Service, Railway Ride & return travel) £15 per person
- Go directly to the Air Museum—(normal Entrance fees would apply)
- Enter your own vehicle - Vehicles built before 1980 are welcome to enter (2 Persons free access to YAM with every pre entered vehicle)
